Memorandum for the Record

25X1

1. [redacted] representing herself to be an employee of the Egyptian Embassy, has telephoned my office for any printed material we might have available on CIA. We do not know who referred her call to this office, but presume the referral was made by the telephone switchboard.

25X1

2. [redacted] stated she had called the National Security Council for information on the Council, and they stated they were making up a new organization chart on the Council, but it was not printed as yet.
